

Baker College Early Childhood Education Fair

FREE

WHO: All registered families welcome

WHAT: Early Childhood Fair for all families with young children

Some of the events, activities, and resources include:

- Barnyard Express Live Animal Show
- Age-appropriate hands-on stations (creative art, early science and math, building, sensory exploration, small motor, and more...)
- Under age 2 area
- Scholastic Book Fair
- Fingerprinting and ID cards provided by Auburn Hills Police Dept.
- Auburn Hills Fire truck visit
- Face painting
- Merry Music Maker
- Free children's raffle
- Adult raffle
- Food and refreshments
- Informational tables including Oakland schools, Oakland County Child Care Council (4C), OLHSA, Oakland Family Services, and more...

Support
APRIL
The Month of the Young Child

Fair activities will be appropriate for children between the ages of 0- 8.

WHERE: Baker College of Auburn Hills- Atrium (Enter South entrance)
1500 University Dr. Auburn Hills, MI 48323 (248)276-8200

WHEN: Saturday, April 25, 2009 10:00-2:00 p.m.

WHY: The purpose of the fair is to give parents/ caregivers information about activities that are appropriate for young children. Children will experience these activities hands-on using resources you may already have at home ☺

PLEASE NOTE:

ALL FAMILIES
MUST REGISTER
TO ATTEND

In order to accommodate everyone, please register with the names and number of children and adults attending to:

Bakercollegeearlychildhoodfair@yahoo.com

OR (248) 276-6699

QUESTIONS?

Natalie.campbell@baker.edu (This e-mail is for questions only NOT registrations)
Department Chair for Early Childhood Education